4. DIRECTORS

4.1 Number of Directors

The board shall consist of the number of directors provided in the articles, or, if a minimum number and a maximum number of directors is so provided, the number of directors of the Corporation shall be determined from time to time by ordinary resolution of the board.

So long as the Corporation is a distributing corporation, the Corporation shall have not fewer than three (3) directors, at least two (2) of whom are not officers or employees of the Corporation or its affiliates.

4.3 Election and Term

The term of office for a director shall be from the date of the meeting at which he or she is elected by resolution until the annual meeting next following; provided that a retiring director shall retain office until the adjournment or termination of the meeting at which his or her successor is elected unless such meeting was called for the purpose of removing the director from office in which case the director so removed shall vacate office immediately upon the passing of the resolution for his or her removal. Retiring directors, if qualified under the Act and other applicable requirements, are eligible for re-election.

Whenever at any election of directors of the Corporation the full number of directors is not elected by reason of the disqualification, the refusal to act or the failure to consent to act as a director or the death of any nominee or nominees, the directors elected may exercise all powers of the board so long as the number of directors so elected constitutes a quorum.

4.4 Resignation

A director may resign by sending to the Corporation a resignation in writing. A resignation of a director shall become effective at the time it is sent to the Corporation or at the time specified in the resignation, whichever is later.

4.5 Removal of Directors

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the shareholders may by resolution passed at a meeting specifically called for such purpose remove any director from office and the vacancy created by such removal may be filled at the same meeting, failing which it may be filled by the board.

4.6 Ceasing to Hold Office

A director ceases to hold office when he or she dies, is removed from office by the shareholders or ceases to be qualified for election as a director, or when or his or her resignation becomes effective.

4.7 Vacancies

Subject to Section 4.8, the Act and the articles, a quorum of the board may fill a vacancy in the board, except a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number or minimum number of directors or from a failure to elect the number or minimum number of directors required by the articles. If there is a vacancy or vacancies on the board, the remaining directors may exercise all the powers of the board so long as a quorum of the board remains in office. In the absence of a quorum of the board, or if there has been a failure to elect the number of directors required by the articles or by the Act, the board shall forthwith call a special meeting of shareholders to fill the vacancy. If the board fails to call such meeting or if there are no directors then in office, any shareholder may call the special meeting of shareholders. Any director appointed or elected to fill such vacancy holds office for the unexpired term of such director's predecessor.

4.8 Appointment of Additional Directors

Subject to the Act and the articles, where the board has been empowered to fix the number of directors within the minimum and maximum number of directors as specified in the articles, the board may appoint one or more additional directors who shall hold office until the close of the next annual meeting, but the total number of additional directors so appointed may not exceed one-third (1/3) of the number of directors elected at the previous annual meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation.

4.9 Remuneration and Expenses

Subject to the articles, the directors shall be paid such remuneration for their services as the board may from time to time determine. The directors shall also be entitled to be reimbursed for travelling and other expenses reasonably incurred by them in attending meetings of the board or any committee of the board. Nothing herein contained shall preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving remuneration for such service.

4.10 Action by the Board

The board shall manage or supervise the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Subject to section 5.7, the powers of the board may be exercised by resolution passed at a meeting at which a quorum is present or by resolution in writing signed by all the directors entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of the board. Where there is a vacancy in the board, the remaining directors may exercise all the powers of the board so long as a quorum remains in office. A resolution in writing, signed by all the directors entitled to vote on that resolution of a meeting of directors or a committee of directors, is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of directors or a committee of directors. Resolutions in writing contemplated by this section 4.10 may be signed in several counterparts including counterparts delivered by facsimile, which counterparts together shall constitute a single resolution in writing.

5. MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

5.1 Place of Meetings

Subject to the Act and the articles, meetings of the board and of any committee of the board may be held at any place within or outside Canada.

5.2 Calling Meetings

A meeting of the board may be convened at any time by the chair of the board, the President, Chief Executive Officer, if any, or any two directors, and the Secretary shall upon direction of any of the foregoing, convene a meeting of the board. A meeting of any committee may be convened at any time by the committee chair or any two members of the committee, and the Secretary shall upon the direction of either of the foregoing, convene a meeting of such committee.

5.3 Notice of Meetings

Notice of the time and place of each meeting of the board, or of any committee of the board, shall be given in the manner provided in section 12.1 to each director or committee member, as the case may be, or by telephone. Where notice of a meeting is given by telephone, it shall be deemed to have been given when communicated personally to the director or committee member in question. If notice of a meeting is to be given personally or by telephone, then such notice shall be given not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time when the meeting is to be held. If notice of a meeting is to be delivered or sent (other than by mail) in the manner provided in section 12.1, then the notice shall be given not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time when the meeting is to be held. If notice of a meeting is to be given by mail, then such notice shall be given not less than ninety-six (96) hours before the time when the meeting is to be held. Meetings of the board or of any committee of the board may be held at any time without formal notice if all the directors or members of the committee are present (including present by way of telephone or other electronic means) or if all the absent directors or committee members waive notice. A notice of a meeting of directors or of any committee need not specify the purpose of or the business to be transacted at the meeting, except where required by the Act.

5.4 Regular Meetings

The board may from time to time fix a day or days in any month or months for regular meetings of the board at a place and hour to be named. A copy of any resolution of the board fixing the place and time of such regular meetings shall be sent to each director forthwith after being passed, but no other notice shall be required for any such regular meeting except where the Act requires the purpose thereof or the business to be transacted thereat to be specified.

5.5 Waiver of Notice

Notice of any meeting of the board or of any committee of the board or any irregularity in any meeting or in the notice thereof may be waived by any director in any manner, and such waiver may be validly given either before or after the meeting to which such waiver relates.

5.6 First Meeting of New Board

Provided a quorum of directors is present, each newly elected board may without notice hold its first meeting immediately following the meeting of shareholders at which such board is elected.

5.7 Participation in Meeting by Electronic Means

If all the directors or members of a committee of the board consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or a committee of the board by means of a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility in accordance with the Act and which means permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other. Any such consent shall be effective whether given before or after the meeting to which it relates and may be given with respect to all meetings of the board and of committees of the board held while a director holds office. A director participating in such a meeting in such manner shall be considered present at the meeting.

5.8 Resident Canadians

The board shall not transact business at a meeting unless at least twenty-five (25%) per cent of the directors present are resident Canadians, except where:

- (a) A resident Canadian director who is unable to be present approves in writing or by telephone or other communication device the business transacted at the meeting, and
- (b) The number of resident Canadian directors present at the meeting, together with any resident Canadian director who gives that director's approval under section 5.8(a) above, totals at least twenty-five (25%) of the directors present at the meeting.

5.9 Quorum

Subject to section 5.8, a majority of the number of directors prescribed by the articles or fixed by the board pursuant to section 4.1 shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board. If a quorum is present when the meeting is called to order, then a quorum shall be deemed to be constituted throughout the continuance of the meeting.

5.10 Chair and Secretary of Meeting

The chair of any meeting of the board shall be the director present at the meeting who is the first mentioned of the following officers as have been appointed: chair of the board, President, Chief Executive Officer, if any, or a Vice-President (in order of seniority). If no such officer is present, the directors present shall choose one of their number to be chair. If the secretary of the Corporation is absent, the chair of the meeting shall appoint some person, who need not be a director, to act as secretary of the meeting.

5.11 Adjournment of Meetings

Any meeting of directors may be adjourned from time to time by the chair of the meeting, with the consent of the meeting, to a fixed time and place. Notice of an adjourned meeting of the board is not required if the fixed time and place of the adjourned meeting is announced at the original meeting. The adjourned meeting shall be duly constituted if a quorum is present and if it is held in accordance with the terms of the adjournment. If there is no quorum present at the adjourned meeting, the original meeting shall be deemed to have terminated forthwith after its adjournment.

5.12 Votes to Govern

At all meetings of the board and of each committee of the board, every question shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast on the question. In case of an equality of votes, the chair of the meeting shall not be entitled to have a second or casting vote and the motion shall be defeated.

5.13 Conflict of Interest

A director or officer who is a party to, or who is a director or officer of or has a material interest in any person who is a party to, a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Corporation shall disclose the nature and extent of the individual's interest at the time and in the manner provided by the Act. Any such contract or transaction or proposed contract or transaction shall be referred to the board or the shareholders for approval even if such contract is one that in the ordinary course of the Corporation's business would not require approval by the board or the shareholders, and a director interested in a contract so referred to the board shall not attend any part of a meeting of directors during which the contract or transaction is discussed and shall not vote on any resolution to approve the same except as provided by the Act. If no quorum exists for the purpose of voting on a resolution to approve a contract or transaction only because a director is not permitted to be present at the meeting by reason of the foregoing, the remaining directors shall be deemed to constitute a quorum for the purpose of voting on the resolution. Where all of the directors are required to disclose their interests pursuant to this section and the Act, the contract or transaction may be approved only by the shareholders.

6. MANAGING DIRECTOR AND COMMITTEES

The board may appoint any one of the directors to be a managing director, provided that the managing director is a resident Canadian. Subject to the Act, the board may delegate to the managing director any of the powers of the board.

6.2 Formation of Committees

The board may appoint one or more committees of directors as it may determine, provided that at least twenty-five (25%) per cent of the committee members are resident Canadian, and the board may delegate to such committee any of the powers of the board, except those which pertain to items which, under the Act, a committee of directors has no authority to exercise.

6.3 Transaction of Business

The powers of a committee of directors may be exercised by a meeting at which a quorum of the committee is present, in person or in accordance with section 5.7, or by resolution in writing signed by all the members of such committee who would have been entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of the committee. Meetings of any such committee may be held at any place within or outside Canada.

Unless the articles of the Corporation otherwise provide, the board may determine that any class or series of the Corporation's securities shall be uncertificated securities, provided that such determination by the board shall not apply to securities represented by a certificate until such certificate is surrendered to the Corporation. Every holder of one or more shares of the Corporation that are certificated securities shall be entitled, at the holder's option, to a share certificate, or to a non-transferrable written acknowledgement of the holder's right to obtain a share certificate, stating the number and class or series of shares held by the holder as shown on the securities register. The board or any officer or agent designated by the board may in its or such person's discretion direct the issue of a new share certificate in lieu of and upon cancellation of a share certificate that has been mutilated or in substitution for a share certificate claimed to have been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken if the owner:

- (a) so requests before the Corporation has notice that the security certificate has been acquired by a protected purchaser;
- (b) unless the board otherwise determines in a particular case, furnishes the Corporation with an indemnity bond sufficient, in the opinion of the board, to protect the Corporation and any transfer agent, registrar or other agent of the Corporation from any loss that the Corporation or any of them may suffer by complying with the request to issue the new share certificate; and
- (c) satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the Corporation from time to time, whether generally or in any particular case.

9.9 Deceased Shareholders

In the event of the death of a holder, or any one of the joint holders, of any share, the Corporation shall not be required to make any entry in the securities register in respect thereof or to make payment of any dividends thereon except upon production of all such documents as may be required by law and upon compliance with the reasonable requirements of the Corporation and its transfer agents.

In the case of joint holders the cheque shall, unless such joint holders otherwise direct, be made payable to the order of all such joint holders and mailed to them at their recorded address. The mailing of such cheque as aforesaid, unless the same is not paid on due presentation, shall satisfy and discharge the liability for the dividend to the extent of the sum represented thereby plus the amount of any tax which the Corporation is required to and does withhold.

10.3 Non-Receipt of Cheques

In the event of non-receipt of any dividend cheque by the person to whom it is sent as aforesaid, the Corporation shall issue or cause to be issued to such person a replacement cheque for a like amount on such terms as to indemnity, reimbursement of expenses and evidence of non-receipt and of title as the board may from time to time prescribe, whether generally or in any particular case.

10.4 Record Date for Dividends and Rights

Subject to the Act and the rules of any stock exchange on which the shares of the Corporation are listed, the board may fix in advance, within the period prescribed by the Act, a date as a record date for the determination of the persons entitled to receive payment of any dividend or to exercise the right to subscribe for securities, provided that, unless notice of the record date is waived in writing by every holder of a share of the class or series affected whose name is set out in the securities register at the close of business on the day the board fixes the record date, notice of any such record date shall be given by the Corporation within the period prescribed by the Act, in the manner provided in the Act and by written notice to each stock exchange on which the shares of the Corporation are listed for trading. Where no record date is fixed in advance as aforesaid, the record date for the determination of the persons entitled to receive payment of any dividend or to exercise the right to subscribe for securities of the Corporation shall be at the close of business on the day on which the resolution relating to such dividend or right to subscribe is passed by the board.

10.5 Unclaimed Dividends

Subject to the Act and any other applicable law, notice of a meeting of shareholders called for any purpose other than the consideration of the minutes of an earlier meeting, receiving the financial statements and auditor's report, election of directors and reappointment of the incumbent auditor shall state the nature of such business in sufficient detail to permit the shareholder to form a reasoned judgment thereon and shall state the text of any special resolution to be submitted to the meeting.

11.6 Waiver of Notice

Notice of any meeting of shareholders or any irregularity in any such meeting or in the notice thereof may be waived by any shareholder, the duly appointed proxy of such shareholder or any other person entitled to attend the meeting of shareholders on behalf of such shareholder, in any manner and such waiver may be validly given either before or after the meeting to which such waiver relates. Attendance of any shareholder, duly appointed proxy of any shareholder or any other person entitled to attend the meeting of shareholders on behalf of such shareholder shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting, except where that person at the opening of business of the meeting states to the meeting that his or her attendance at the meeting is solely for the purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called.

11.7 List of Shareholders Entitled to Notice

For every meeting of shareholders, the Corporation shall prepare or cause to be prepared a list of shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order and showing the number of shares held by each shareholder entitled to vote at the meeting. 11.12 Quorum

A quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of shareholders shall be: (i) two persons present in person, each being a shareholder entitled to vote thereat or a duly appointed proxy or representative for an absent shareholder so entitled, and (ii) shareholders, in person or represented by proxy at the meeting, holding in aggregate not less than Ten (10%) per cent of the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote at such meeting. If a quorum is present at the opening of any meeting of shareholders, the shareholders present or represented may proceed with the business of the meeting notwithstanding that a quorum is not present throughout the meeting. If a quorum is not present at the time appointed for the meeting or within a reasonable time thereafter as the shareholders may determine, the shareholders present or represented may adjourn the meeting to a fixed time and place but may not transact any other business.

11.13 Right to Vote and Record Date for Voting

Subject to the provisions of the Act as to authorized representatives of any other body corporate or association, at any meeting of shareholders in respect of which the Corporation has prepared the list referred to in section 11.7, every person who is named in such list shall be entitled to vote the shares shown opposite such person's name except to the extent that, where the Corporation has fixed a record date in respect of such meeting pursuant to section 11.8, such person has transferred the ownership of any of his or her shares after such record date and the transferee of those shares: (a) produces properly endorsed share certificates or otherwise establishes ownership of such shares and (b) demands not later than ten (10) days prior to the meeting (or such shorter period as the board may approve and the Act may permit) that his or her name be included in the list before the meeting, in which case, the transferee shall be entitled to vote the shares at the meeting. In the absence of a list prepared as aforesaid in respect of a meeting of shareholders, every person shall be entitled to vote at the meeting whose name appears in the securities register as the holder of one or more shares carrying the right to vote at such meeting.

11.14 Proxyholders and Representatives

Every shareholder entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders may by means of a proxy appoint a proxyholder, or one or more alternate proxyholders, who need not be shareholders, as such shareholder's nominees to attend and act at the meeting in the manner, to the extent and with the authority conferred by the proxy. To be effective, each proxy must be signed in writing or by electronic signature in accordance with the Act by the shareholder or his or her attorney authorized by a document that is signed in writing or by electronic signature in accordance with the Act (or provided in such other manner as the board may approve and the Act may permit), or if the shareholder is a body corporate or association, by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized. Every form of proxy shall comply with the Act.

A proxy shall be acted upon only if, prior to the time so specified, it shall have been deposited with the Corporation or an agent thereof specified in such notice or, if no such time is specified in such notice, unless it has been received by the secretary of the Corporation or by the chair of the meeting or any adjournment thereof prior to the time of voting.

11.16 Joint Shareholders

11.17 Votes to Govern

At any meeting of shareholders every question shall, unless otherwise required by the articles or by-laws of the Corporation or by the Act, or by the requirements of any stock exchange on which the Corporation's shares are then listed, be determined by the majority of votes cast on the question. In case of an equality of votes, whether upon a show of hands, a poll or a vote conducted by means of a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility, the chair presiding at the meeting shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

11.18 Show of Hands

Subject to the provisions of the Act, any question at a meeting of shareholders shall be decided by a show of hands unless a ballot is required or demanded as hereinafter provided. Upon a show of hands, every person present and entitled to vote shall have one vote regardless of the number of shares he or she represents. Whenever a vote by show of hands shall have been taken upon a question, unless a ballot thereon is so required or demanded, a declaration by the chair of the meeting that the vote upon the question has been carried or carried by a particular majority or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be prima facie evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against any resolution or other proceeding in respect of the said question, and the result of the vote so taken shall be the decision of the shareholders upon the said question.

11.19 Electronic Voting

Notwithstanding section 11.18, any vote referred to in section 11.18, if so permitted by and in accordance with the Act, may be held entirely by means of telephonic, electronic

A ballot so required or demanded shall be taken in such manner as the chair of the meeting directs. If a meeting of shareholders is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as for an original meeting.

11.22 Resolution in Writing

A resolution in writing, signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of shareholders, is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of shareholders. 12.5 Accidental Omissions and Errors

The accidental omission to give any notice to any shareholder, director, officer or auditor, or the non-receipt of any notice by any shareholder, director, officer or auditor or any error in any notice not affecting the substance thereof shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting held pursuant to such notice or otherwise founded thereon.

12.6 Persons Entitled by Death or Operation of Law

Every person who, by operation of law, transfer, death of a shareholder or by any other means whatsoever, becomes entitled to shares is bound by every notice in respect of such shares which has been duly given to the registered holder from whom such holder derives title prior to such holder's name and address being entered on the securities register (whether such notice was given before or after the happening of the event upon which such holder became so entitled) and prior to such holder furnishing to the Corporation the proof of authority or evidence of such holder's entitlement prescribed by the Act.

12.7 Deceased Shareholders

Any notice or other document given as herein provided shall, notwithstanding that such shareholder be then deceased and whether or not the Corporation has notice of his or her death, be deemed to have been duly served in respect of the shares held by such shareholder (whether held solely or with other persons) until some other person be entered in his or her stead in the records of the Corporation as the holder or one of the holders thereof and such service shall for all purposes be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or other document on his or her heirs, executors, or administrators and all persons (if any), interested with him or her in such shares.
